HUMANISM in SCOTLAND ~ Our Responsibilities

We can ignore the notes in pink! :))

Responsibilities of the Celebrant:

1. To provide a professional service at all times, ensuring that the ceremony is dignified, meaningful and personal within a broad Humanist ethos and framework.
2. To ensure the marriage is solemnised at a location that is safe and dignified in accordance with the Marriage(Scotland) Act 1977
3. The Celebrant must obtain the Marriage Schedule from the Bride and Groom before the ceremony can commence.
4. To ensure that the marriage takes place on the date and place specified on the Marriage Schedule.
5. To ensure that the Marriage Schedule is correctly signed in permanent black ink by the Bride, the Groom, their two witnesses and the Celebrant.
6. Any necessary amendments to the Marriage Schedule are made and initialled in permanent black liquid ink.
Please note: The date and place of the marriage must not be altered without the Registrar's express permission.
7. If in the extremely unlikely event of the Celebrant being unable to conduct the ceremony for some reason, such as illness, etc., the Celebrant will ensure another authorised Celebrant will be available to conduct the ceremony.

Responsibilities of the Bride and Groom:

1. To contact the Registrar in the district where the marriage is to take place, not later than 4-6 weeks before the date of the wedding - to submit the Marriage Notice forms (M10). If you are not a British citizen, you are responsible for ensuring that the correct documentation is provided to get married in Scotland. For full info, please go to: www.nrscotland.gov.uk
2. To inform the Registrar that the marriage will be solemnised by a registered Celebrant of Humanism in Scotland by completing Section E of the M10 forms.
Note: In addition to the Humanism in Scotland ceremony fee, statutory fees are payable to the Registrar for the submission of Marriage Notices and for copies of the Marriage Certificate.
3. To collect the Marriage Schedule from the registrar during the week before the marriage.
Note: One of the parties to the marriage must personally collect the document.
PLEASE ENSURE THE DETAILS ON THE FORM ARE CORRECT BEFORE TAKING IT AWAY
4. To deliver the Marriage Schedule to the Celebrant on or before the day of the ceremony.
Note: The marriage cannot be legally conducted without the Marriage Schedule.
5. To advise the Registrar in advance if there is any possibility of the marriage not taking place on the date or at the place specified.
6. To take care of the signed Marriage Schedule and return it to the Registrar within THREE WORKING DAYS so that the marriage can be registered. Note: The schedule can be returned by anyone.
7. To pay the agreed fee and expenses for the humanist ceremony as shown up to four weeks before the ceremony.
8. To have the ceremony script completed (with help and guidance from your celebrant) two weeks before the ceremony, allowing for minor changes (such as vows, personal words and secret content)

CANCELLATIONS

Because we hold your date exclusively and incur immediate administrative costs, we are unable to refund the deposit if you change your mind. We understand that life can be unpredictable; therefore, exceptions can be made under compassionate circumstances, such as a bereavement involving the couple. Please note: if a cancellation occurs after the full balance has been paid, half the balance, minus the deposit, can be refunded. In exceptional circumstances, the full balance (minus the deposit) can be refunded.
